“ My deepest sympathy to the family and loved ones for your loss. My own memories of Smitty are fleeting and vague but my mother Retta Jo who was his first cousin spoke of him kindly through the years and it was evident how much she cared for him. I hope that with time you come to find more comfort in your memories than sadness.

“ Having roomed with Smitty at LMU, I was privileged to get to know him better than many—he was a most humble, giving and compassionate person. He always had a smile, and made everyone else smile. In spite of the fact that we hadn't stayed in close contact, I still consider Smitty a true friend, and those are few and far between. Tinkerbell was always easier for him than my name...
