“ I thought a lot of sue, we were in tourism together for a few years. I remember a couple of years ago she and Rosanna Odell came to our home in rosé hill around the holidays for dinner, we had a wonderful time . She will be missed, always a smile on her face.

“ Sue was my teacher at Thomas Walker High School. I liked and respected her very much when I was her student. When my husband and I moved back to Lee County after 25 years away, I was fortunate to know Sue as my friend. We attended church together and she never failed, even in sad times, to wear her beautiful smile and offer a word of encouragement or praise. I'm thankful I was able to tell her personally what she meant to me as a teacher and as a friend. Sue will always remain a part of my most pleasant memories. Rest in peace now, Sue. You were a woman full of grace.
