“ Aunt Sybil will surly be missed. She always had a great sense of humor. Even in her older years she never missed a chance to poke fun at you. Last time I went down to see her we talked for hours about old family stories. I will miss her and all stories

“ Syble was a person that if you had not seen her in years , she was always the same ole Syble. She always was so glad to see us as we was glad to see her. Made sure we ate. I always looked up to her, anytime I had a question about the family, she always had the answer. She was as sharp as a tack. In her younger days , she worked the fields as good as a man would.

*Syble you surely will be missed, but you are in celebration with the family in Heaven ALL you sisters and brothers. You have gone home. Love you always,
Connie*
