“ Gosh, I don't know where to begin... Me and Tammy were so close growing up. Alot of good memories from riding bikes, to have dancing contests and staying all night with each other. We would pull an eyelash out and rub them to and make a wish, mainly to see if one of us could stay the not with the other, lol... She was such a great cousin and friend as well...
We used to go to the lake Almost every weekend in the summer. Grill out, swim... Dad would make his famous chilli by poring a can of Budweiser in it, course it boils out the alcohol....
Going up in the holler waxing creeks and playing in the mountains...
There is so many great memories, I can't wait to get my pictures out and go through them....
I miss them times when we were growing up.. May you rest in piece now. Love you always...

“ Hearing of Tammy’s passing breaks my heart. I spent my entire childhood riding bikes with her and Tina from dawn until dusk during the summers, and sledding down the hills together every winter. We had countless sleepovers—even though we lived right next door to each other. Majority of my favorite childhood memories simply couldn’t be told without including Tina and Tammy in them.

Fly high, sweet Tammy.

Tina, you and your family are in my prayers.
