“ A message to Angela and the family
From all of Gladys children, we want to express our deepest sorrow over the loss of Aunt Ruth. The memories we share from our visits to Blackwater growing up always bring smiles to our faces. We fondly recall the many picnics gathered at the old home place, which continue to tug at our hearts. Your mom was a truly beautiful and loving woman. We understand how much her absence is felt, and how your hearts are breaking as each day passes. Please remember that years ago, she made sure she would see all of you again in Heaven. This assurance can bring you peace in the days to come. Hold close the memories of her raising you and the precious moments you spent caring for her during her final days on Earth. May God wrap His loving arms around your family and help you bear her loss until you are reunited once more.
Love from all the Peters,
Paul Elbert, Phyliss, Linda and Jimmy Don
