“ My sweet Aunt Bub....I may not have been blood, but when I was 2 my Dad took me to TN, dropped me off to my future step mom, that became the only motherly family I knew. I loved each one as my own blood, sure do miss the Sundays after church at Mamaw William's. Sunday dinners good singing and Ernie Jacobs. Until we meet again.

“ I have known Vivian all my life and was blessed to have her and Cecil to watch me when I was small. We came full circle and they watched my daughter, Kristen, from the time she was 8 weeks old until she was 4yrs. They were truly the salt of the earth, so kind and humble. They truly thought of Kristen as theirs and treated her as such always. We are so thankful to have known and loved them both.
