“ I am already missing Jean. We had so much in common. It seemed like we had known each other forever. Jean was my sister-in-law, but more like a sister. I'm glad I sent her flowers to the hospital so she could enjoy them while she was still alive. I love you, Jean, and I am praying for her family that is left behind. We have the promise of seeing her again if we are saved. If you have not accepted Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour, Jean would want you to accept Him now before it is too late. Rest in Peace my beautiful sister and friend.
